

AZTEC MUSEUM

PIONEER VILLAGE

Celebrating 60 years of preserving history - 1964 to 2024

ALL ABOARD!

Calling all TRAIN
LOVERS,
RAILFANS &
LOCAL HISTORY
BUFFS!

Join us for the unveiling of the newly commissioned watercolor of the Aztec Train Depot featuring Locomotive 495 by Jeff Ellingson

Sunday, February 11

2-4:30 p.m.

125 N. Main Ave., Aztec

- Brief Presentations by Jeff Ellingson and Carolyn Bowra
- Open House with light refreshments
- Limited Seating

Jeff A. Ellingson is a watercolor artist who specializes in railroad art. He majored in art at Fort Lewis College and graduated from the Colorado Institute of Art. He has a long association with the Durango & Silverton Narrow Gauge Railroad and has been involved in all aspects of the railroad, resulting in many stories to share. He retired in 2022, and now lives in Farmington with his wife, Renee.

Carolyn Bowra is a retired museum professional descended from Aztec pioneer families (Sharp, Milleson, Bowra). Aztec has a special place in her heart. She is a railroad fan and has worked at the Durango & Silverton Narrow Gauge Railroad Museum, where she became familiar with Ellingson's work.

Signed and numbered limited-edition prints (12" x 18") will be offered for sale. Cost is $96 each with proceeds benefitting the Aztec Museum Association.