

June 10 Best Brass of Summer

The Best Brass of Summer are eleven professional brass players from New Mexico, Colorado, and Arizona who come together to play great music by composers like Sousa, Joplin, Mozart and many others. This unique ensemble has been performing together for fourteen years with concerts in Farmington, Durango, Santa Fe, Albuquerque, and now Aztec. This is brass music like you've never heard before!

These concerts are made possible through a grant from the Connie Gotsch Arts Foundation

Summer Concerts in the Pioneer Village
FREE ADMISSION

Entrance to Pioneer Village from Park Ave on the west side of Aztec Museum Complex

July 8 The Badly Bent

Based in Durango, Colorado, The Badly Bent was the winner of the 2005 Telluride Bluegrass Festival band competition and has performed at over 100 festivals across the United States. The band has recently released its third CD, "Too Late To Care". The band is comprised of Cindi Trautmann (fiddle, vocals), Patrick Dressen (guitar, vocals), Mark Epstein (banjo, vocals), Joel Denman (mandolin, vocals), and Guy Ewing (bass).

www.thebadlybent.com

*These concerts are made possible through a grant from the
Connie Gotsch Arts Foundation*

Summer Concerts in the Pioneer Village
FREE ADMISSION

Entrance to Pioneer Village from Park Ave on the west side of Aztec Museum Complex

August 12 - Lone Piñon

Lone Piñon is a New Mexican string band, or “orquesta típica”, whose music celebrates the integrity and diversity of their region’s cultural roots. With fiddles, upright bass, guitars, accordions, vihuela, and bilingual vocals, they play a wide spectrum of the traditional music that is at home in New Mexico. “They make the music of the border into something living, breathing and absolutely enticing.” (fRoots magazine)

www.lonepinon.com

This concert is being presented with assistance from the Northwest New Mexico Arts Council.

Summer Concerts in the Pioneer Village
FREE ADMISSION

Entrance to Pioneer Village from Park Ave on the west side of Aztec Museum Complex

September 9 - The Village Band

The Village Band plays ragtime and other vintage dance music. With strings, brass, piano, and vocals, these eight outstanding musicians evoke small town bands and theater orchestras of the early 20th Century.

These concerts are made possible through a grant from the Connie Gotsch Arts Foundation

Summer Concerts in the Pioneer Village
FREE ADMISSION

Entrance to Pioneer Village from Park Ave on the west side of Aztec Museum Complex