

AZTEC RUINS SUMMER LECTURE SERIES

June - Aug 2018

7:00 to 8:30 pm

AZTEC RUINS VISITOR CENTER
FREE ADMISSION

June 15 (Friday): Protecting the Greater Chaco Landscape: Where We Stand in 2018, Paul Reed, Archeology Projects Administrator, Center for Desert Archaeology, Tucson, AZ.

June 22 (Friday): Beyond Stone & Mortar: A Hopi Perspective on the Preservation of "Ruins" (& Culture), Lyle Balenquah (Hopi), Independent Consultant, Third Mesa, Hopi Nation, AZ.

July 6, (Friday): Place-based Education and Sovereignty: Traditional Arts at the Institute of American Indian Arts, Porter Swentzell (Santa Clara Pueblo), Asst. Professor, Liberal Indigenous Studies, Institute of American Indian Arts, Santa Fe.

July 20 (Friday): Early Agriculture in the San Juan Basin: Two case studies from the Mid-American Pipeline III Excavations, Robin M. Cordero, Principal Investigator, Office of Contract Archeology, Maxwell Museum of Anthropology, Albuquerque, NM.

August 3 (Friday): A Layered World: New Research on the Aztec North Great House, Michelle I. Turner, PhD Candidate, Anthropology, Binghamton University, Binghamton, NY.

For more details, see our website calendar (nps.gov/azru) or Facebook (AztecRuinsNM)