

QUALITY WATERS EXPERIENCE PACKAGE

DAY 1

Fishing and Wines 6 am to 6 pm

Breakfast/Lunch Sunshine Bakery & Deli (119 N. Main Ave.; 505-333-2211)

Breakfast burritos, sandwich combos on homemade breads, salads, and baked goods including cookies, cinnamon rolls, and pies. Open 6 a.m.-3 p.m. Closed Sunday and Monday.

Guided Tour by Fisheads (505-632-2194)

Stop at Abe's Fly Shop for fishing equipment, license, personal fishing guide, tips and transport. Quality Waters of the lower San Juan is ranked a U.S. Top-10 Fly Fishing Destination. Located downstream from Navajo Dam.

Wine Tasting at Wines of the San Juan (233 NM State 511; 505-632-0879)

Located 12 miles from Navajo Dam. Drive less than a mile northeast on NM 539, turn left and drive 11 miles south on NM 511. Celebrated for cabernets, blancs, and chardonnays. Open 10 a.m.-6 p.m. Closed Tuesday.

Dinner at Rubio's (116 S. Main Ave.; 505-334-0599)

Mexican food including tacos, tamales, and enchilada plates to combine favorite sides of beans, rice and fries. Bar serves a New Mexican wine list, flavored margaritas, and microbrews. Patio seating. Open 11 a.m.-9 p.m. Closed Sunday.

DAY 2

Arches and Mountain Biking 6 am to 6 pm

Breakfast/Lunch at The Main Street Bistro (122 N. Main Ave.; 505-334-0109)

American and Southwest comfort food, including skillet and omelet breakfasts, and sandwiches, burgers, steaks and breaded fish for lunch and dinner.

Open Monday-Friday 7 a.m. - 2:30 p.m. Saturday 8 a.m. - 12 noon; Closed Sunday.

Aztec Arches Self Tour

Immediate area offers nearly 240 sandstone arches, including popular Arch Rock in Hart Canyon and Anasazi Arch in Cox Canyon. Easy/moderate hiking. Directions and turn-by-turn guides available at Aztec Visitor Center (505-334-9551) or at www.aztecnm.com

Alien Run Mountain Biking

Alien Run Trail is regarded among the best single tracks in the Southwest and is celebrated for annual mountain bike competition. Named for alleged UFO crash. For novices and experts alike. www.alienrun.com

Downtown Aztec

Main Avenue and surrounds are a National Historic District with an eclectic shops for art, recreation, music, dining, specialty goods and services. Visit Aztec Visitor Center (505-334-9551) for a walking tour guide.

Dinner at Hiway Grill (401 N.E. Aztec Blvd.; 505-334-6533)

Pub and seasonal selections with locally sourced ingredients. Appetizers and entrees include wings, stuffed relleno chiles, chicken fried steak and burgers with New Mexican flavors. Beer and wine, brunch, lunch and dinner from 11 a.m.-10 p.m. Families welcome. Closed Sunday.