

New Mexico, USA

  @CityofAztec

GROUNDHOG RESERVOIR

General Information

Located approx. 31 miles north-northeast (CR 31 and CR H) of Dolores, CO, Groundhog Reservoir is located in an open, high mountain ranch land surrounded by mixed spruce/fir forest.

Durango Office
151 East 16th Street
Durango, CO 81301
(970) 247-0855

Activities

Boating (no wake), fishing, and wildlife viewing.

Facilities

Restrooms with vault toilets and boat ramp. RV and campground is managed through a private enterprise not affiliated with the Colorado Parks and Wildlife.

Groundhog Lake RV Park and Campgrounds
(970) 739-5533 (for info and reservations)
www.groundhoglake.com

Fees

Fishing license is required from the Colorado Parks and Wildlife.
Campsites fees and boat access fees required.

Fishing

Rainbow and cutthroat trout.

Fishing License

Colorado Parks and Wildlife
(800) 244-5613
cpw.state.co.us/thingstodo/Pages/Fishing.aspx

Water Recreation

Water recreation includes fishing and boating. Boats are limited to no more than 18 ft in length, no more than 30 horsepower with outboard motor only.

Source: Esri, HERE, DeLorme, USGS, Intermap, iFlycatcher, GEBCO, Swisstopo, Mapbox, OpenStreetMap, and the 60000+ contributors to OpenStreetMap.

 Groundhog Reservoir