

New Mexico, USA

  @CityofAztec

LA JARA RESERVOIR SWA

General Information

Located approx. 35 miles southwest of Alamosa CO, La Jara Reservoir is managed by the Colorado State Parks as part of a State Wildlife Area (SWA).

Monte Vista Office
0722 South Road 1 East
Monte Vista, CO 81144
(719) 587-6900

Activities

Hunting, fishing, and wildlife viewing.

Facilities

Primitive camping, restrooms with vault toilets, drinking water, and boat ramp.

Fees

No park fees.

Fishing license is required from the Colorado Parks and Wildlife.

Fishing

Fishing at the lake is considered poor due to variations in water level. Fish that are caught include brook and cutthroat trout.

Fishing License

Colorado Parks and Wildlife

(800) 244-5613

cpw.state.co.us/thingstodo/Pages/Fishing.aspx

Hunting

This area is better known for hunting deer, elk, bear and water fowl.

Water Recreation

Water recreation is limited to small craft boating and fishing when water levels permit.

Lake Amenities

-  Boat Ramp
-  Campground
-  Restroom

La Jara Reservoir