Cerrillos Hills, New Mexico's 35th State Park, is a year-round, day-use park located off the Turquoise Trail National Scenic Byway (State Highway 14) between Santa Fe and Albuquerque.

The park has trails for hiking, mountain biking, horseback riding and picnicking. The area offers scenic views of the Galisteo Basin and surrounding areas. One will cross paths with over 1,100 years of mining history. The historic mine shafts are safeguarded and signed with interpretive information. Elevations range from 5,800-6,100 feet.

Park Rules

- Keep pets leashed.
- Stay on the trail.
- Pack litter out.
- Respect private property boundaries.
- Yield to horseback riders by stepping off the trail on the downhill side, making sure you are visible to them.
- No rock collecting or metal detecting.
