Edge of the Cedars is a museum of Native American culture with an emphasis on prehistoric Puebloan (Anasazi) lifeways. The museum serves as the archeological repository for southeastern Utah. A gift shop offers many fine quality educational items.

Learning opportunities

The museum offers a variety of public programs, workshops, and changing exhibits; themes include rock art, traditional and contemporary Native American arts and current research in archaeology. For a current schedule, call 435-678-2238 or e-mail edgeofthecedars@utah.gov.
