

General Information

Located approx. 18 miles north of Durango, CO, off of US Highway 550, Haviland Lake managed by the San Juan National Forest.

San Juan National Forest
15 Burnett Court
Durango, CO 81301
(970) 247-4874

Activities

Wakeless boating, camping, and fishing.

Facilities

The campground is hosted and managed by the San Juan National Forest has 43 campsites, with sites for RVs and tents; some near the lakeshore. Twenty six of the campsites are reservable and 17 of these campsites have electrical hookups. Vault toilets are present. Haviland Lake offers barrier-free accessible piers.

www.fs.usda.gov/recarea/sanjuan/recreation/fishing/recarea/?recid=42962&actid=42

Reservations:

www.recreation.gov
(877) 444-6777

Fees

Fishing license is required from the Colorado Parks and Wildlife.
Campsite fees required.

Fishing

Rainbow and cutthroat trout.

Fishing License

Colorado Parks and Wildlife
(800) 244-5613
cpw.state.co.us/thingstodo/Pages/Fishing.aspx

Water Recreation

Haviland Lake is wakeless so only boats powered by electric troll motors or hand-rowed are allowed.

Lake Amenities

-  Campground
-  Boat Ramp

 Haviland Lake

110 North Ash Ave Aztec, New Mexico 87410 (888) 543-4629